 K. Chandrashekar Rao of the TRS is the Chief Minister of Telangana. KCR was the first chief minister of the newly formed State of Telangana and took oath in 2014. He was re-elected for a second term as the CM in December 2018. The Telangana cabinet currently has 17 ministers including the CM. Currently, the Telangana Rashtra Samithi (TRS) is the ruling party in Telangana. TRS has been in power from the formation of the State of Telangana on June 2, 2014. The post of Deputy CM is currently vacant in the Telangana Cabinet. There have only been 3 Deputy Chief Ministers till date in Telangana. All three were appointed during the first term of the KCR government. The Dy. CMs of Telangana in the past were, Mohammad Mahamood Ali, T. Rajaiah and Kadiyam Srihari. Former Dy CM Mohammed Ali is the current Telangana Home Minister. Patolla Sabitha Indra Reddy of TRS, from Maheshwaram constituency, is the minister for Education Minister of Telangana. She was assumed charge as the Education Minister of Telangana on September 8, 2019. Former Dy CM Mohammad Mahamood Ali is in charge of the Home Ministry of Telangana. He is a Member of the Legislative Council. Dr. Tamilisai Soundararajan is currently the governor of Telangana. She assumed office on September 8, 2019. The health minister Etefa Rajendra, elected from Huzarabad, resigned from the Telangana Health Minister post. And currently, the Chief Minister, K. Chandrashekar Rao handles the healthy ministry of the state. Singireddy Niranjan Reddy, elected from Wanaparthy, is in charge of the Agriculture Department of Telangana. Puvvada Ajay Kumar, elected from Khammam is the current transport minister of Telangana. source: www.telangana.gov.in Government Services
